PALS™ Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening First Grade: Using Data To Drive Instruction

Thursday, October 17, 2013 • 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Presenter: Nancy Walsh-Boeder—PALs Market Place

Description

Learn how to analyze your current PALS™ data by attending this workshop. The PALS™ Using Data to Drive Instruction course will be viewed with time for discussion as a district team or discussion with other districts. You will learn how to form core instructional literacy groups as well as find out important diagnostic information about your students in order to form intervention groups. The Electronic Lesson Plan provided in your Online PALS™ account will be reviewed as well as the PALS™ Quick Checks for progress monitoring.

Workshop Objectives

- Analyze PALS™ data to determine intervention needs;
- Provide interventions based on assessment results;
- Planning intervention activities to meet the needs of your students; and,
- Tools for progress monitoring with PALS™ quick checks.

What to bring?

- Bring your Fall PALS™ results with you to the workshop.

Who should attend?

Grade level teachers and administrators can attend as a team or administrators/reading specialists can attend to learn how to use this course with your district team.
