

2013-14 Professional Networking: “Conversations in Teaching”

Teachers in small schools often miss out on networking opportunities simply because they don't have other teachers in their department. CESA 3 is hosting day-long meetings for each content area to facilitate collaboration and networking. Join us!

English Language Arts Hosted by Lisa Arneson Suitable for teachers in both middle and high school, these meetings will focus on current thinking in the field and plenty of sharing of resources and ideas surrounding the Common Core State Standards. The content and agendas will be determined by the group. The last meeting will be in Madison at the Cooperative Children’s Book Center. October 8 December 4 February 14 April 15 (CCBC) Also: Curriculum Companion Collaborative Work Days: Oct 23 & Jan 8	Mathematics Hosted by Patti Schaefer These dates bring together middle school and high school teachers in grade-level content teams.
