

6-12 ELA Forums—2013-14

Calling all middle and high school English teachers. . .

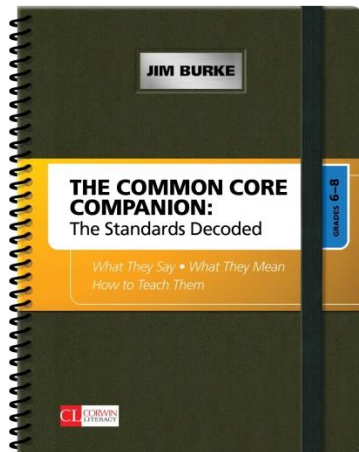

Join in our ELA Forum series at CESA 3! This year, this networking group will delve deeper into the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) by studying on Jim Burke's new book (see below). We will also:

- Explore the possibility of developing common writing rubrics based on CCSS writing types—and discuss how these might suit for SLO's
- Develop word lists of grade-level academic vocabulary
- Visit the Cooperative Children's Book Center in Madison to see the latest and greatest young adult releases
- Try instructional technology tools that link to the CCSS
- And more, depending on the desires of the group

6-12 ELA Forum Dates:

October 8, December 4, February 14 and April 15 (CCBC)

Cost is $50/meeting. Register for each on www.myquickreg.com

Everyone will get a copy of Jim Burke's new book on the CCSS. Learn:

- What They Say
- What They Mean
- How to Teach Them

*Books focus on 6-8 and 9-12
