

PALS for First Grade

Beginning with the 2013-14 school year, PALS will be used as a state assessment in Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten and First Grade. This workshop will provide information and practice on using PALS at the first grade level. The nuts and bolts of test administration will be covered. In addition there will be an emphasis on discussing the diagnosis of results and instructional recommendations for classroom teachers.

Audience: First grade classroom teachers, Title I teachers, reading specialists, primary special education teachers and elementary principals
