

ACCESS for ELLs Training

Tuesday, November 19, 2013

Workshop: 9:00-3:00

Breakfast and Registration: 8:30

Held at CESA 4, 923 East Garland Street, West Salem

Target Audience: Bilingual/ESL Coordinators, Curriculum Directors, DACs, ELL/ESL Teachers

The testing window is tentatively scheduled for December 2-February 7.

All students who have been identified as English language learners, whether or not they are receiving ELS services are required to be assessed annually for English language proficiency. This assessment includes an individually administered and locally scored speaking test and a group administered listening, reading, and writing tests, which will be scored by MetreTech, Inc. To ensure reliability and standardization, training is required prior to administering the test.

Attendees will:

- Learn all parts of the test and the procedures for administering the test
- Learn the procedure for administering the Kindergarten Model ACCESS Test
- Practice rating the speaking portions with sample recordings
- Pass three tests to become certified to administer the ACCESS Test

Cost: FREE to Title III Consortium Members, All others $150 per person
