Q-Net Series

"Playing Through Literacy" Overview

Date: October 10, 2013
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: Sharon Ivers and Kari Stroede

Description: Early Literacy is about building stronger relationships through enjoying books and developing language through meaningful conversations.

We will review the Wisconsin Model Early Learning Standards for literacy and make the connections to daily practice and a print-rich environment.

Literacy Centers—Expanding Beyond the Book

Date: November 14, 2013
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: To be announced

Description: We know that young children love reading the same book over and over, but how do we connect the wonderful ah ha's they have during story sharing to relevant things in their lives. This night will be dedicated to expanding beyond the book.

Best of the Best Books

Date: December 12, 2013
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: Shelly Collins-Fuerbringer, LE Phillips Library

Description: The return of the favorite Library Lady! Shelly will come back and share the Best of the Best Books—award and honor books, along with her personal list of those bought for her grandkids. You will leave with great gift ideas for Christmas.

Successful Story Time with the Use of Visuals

Date: January 9, 2014
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: Jodi Aubart

Description: How to make Story Time successful with the use of visuals for clear expectations and increased student participation.

Family Literacy Ideas: Dr. Seuss' Birthday Party and Beyond

Date: February 13, 2014
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: Mary Joslin, CESA 10

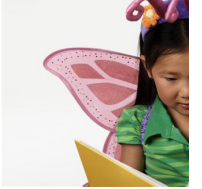

Description: Need some ideas for Dr. Seuss' upcoming birthday on March 2? Rusk County Children's Council has been celebrating his birthday for years with a fun get-together at their community library. Ideas, patterns and stories will be shared to help you plan your next Seussical Celebration!

Eau Claire Children's Museum: Its All About Playing Through Literacy

Date: March 13, 2014
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: To be determined

Description: A night at the Museum will highlight how to use story books to engage students in dramatic play. Come play for the night, bring back ideas to implement in your own programs, and consider a future fieldtrip to the local museum.

Story Time and Music

Date: April 10, 2014
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Presenter: Rob Reid

Description: Rob works at UW-Eau Claire. He will be using music and voice inflection to bring stories to life. Come celebrate "Week of the Young Child" with a good story or two and some laughs.

Additional Session for Credit Option Participants

Date: May 2014 (Date to be determined)
Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm
Location: CESA 10

Description: For credit participants only. This session will provide time for those taking the session for credit to share their projects and how implementation has impacted those they work with.
