

Personalize the Learning Experience with Google

October 18, 2013
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Teachers can empower students to personalize their own learning experience. This will help the students organize and motivate themselves to success. Who isn't happier when they can direct their own learning, right?! Google offers multiple ways to personalize the learning experience. This workshop will cover several digital tools that help people customize their learning experience.

Pre-requisites-Bring your own device.
