

Interactive Curriculum Using SMARTboard - Level 1

December 17, 2013
February 11, 2014
March 26, 2014
8:30 am - 3:30 pm

The focus of these sessions will be creating and collaborating with other professionals in a make, take, and sharing of Notebook files that will be engaging, interactive, and fun for students as well as targeting curriculum objectives. This course is designed for the educators that have already had training on a Smartboard. The course will be over three separate dates which will allow course participants to use files created, share experiences, share created files, have technical support, and provide support/collaboration with other educators. Please come with ideas and curriculum material that you would like to create into a Smartboard activity.
