

Brain Works:

Preparing for Learning and Assessment Success

Sponsored by the Safe & Healthy Schools Department

January 7 and February 13

8:30 - 4:00 p.m., CESA 5, 626 E. Slifer St., Portage Breakfast and Lunch Provided

Trainer: Terry Haag

Participants will experience and learn activities that will get students ready to learn:

- Enhance student competence for academic assessments
- Maximize learning capabilities
- Improve reading, recalling, comprehension, and test-taking skills
- Stimulate nervous system activity in all parts of the brain
- Lessen the fight or flight reaction
- Develop new neuro pathways when learning feels "stuck"
- Provide options for positive behavior patterns

Participants will apply these strategies to their specific learning environments

Can be used as Tier I, II or III Intervention**
