

- ❖ We're excited to offer an opportunity, free of charge, to anyone new to or who has had previous RBI training and would like more practice.
- ❖ We will start with reviewing the fundamentals, then you will observe a live RBI demonstration, followed by reflection and discussion.
- ❖ We will discuss putting it all together with discussion from those who use it on how to "fit it all in", how it aligns with primary coaching, and writing functional goals

Please bring your book and notes from your two day RBI training to reference if you have already attended a training.
