

SMART SLOs

As we countdown to 2014-15, we draw closer to the deadline for the full scale implementation of Act 166, Educator Effectiveness requirement. Regardless of the system that your district selects to evaluate teacher/principal practice, writing high quality SLOs for measuring student outcomes will be an important component of the EE system. After the full scale pilot (2013-14) revisions will be made, and further details will be revealed about state-wide revisions to the intended system.

Please join us as we discuss how your district can be prepared to help teachers write high quality STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES. Learn how to write a rigorous SLO that meets the requirements of the SLO selection rubric. At the end of the day, participants will be able to:

- Know who must write an SLO
- Know how many SLOs are required
- Describe the state's process for implementing an evaluation system in which SLOs are a critical component
- Determine assessments upon which an SLO can be measured
- Determine methods to conduct needs assessment for developing an SLO
- Know the components of a SMART SLO
- Understand how building, team, and individual SLOs are connected
- Analyze example SLOs to critique the quality of the SLO
- Write an SLO either using mock or actual needs assessment data

Audience: Each focus session will provide SLO samples for the targeted population. However, teachers/principals will find the samples adaptable for any teacher.

SMART SLO Training Dates

All workshops are 8:30am-3:00pm and held at CESA 5 unless otherwise noted.

December 4, 2013	Fine Arts Disciplinary Literacy for the Arts &amp; Designing Assessments for Measuring SLOs in the Arts Julie Palkowski, DPI
February 5, 2014	6-12 Math/Science Julee Dredske, CESA 5
February 24, 2014	Gr. 6-12 Social Studies/English Language Arts Heather Fish, CESA 5
March 6, 2014	Gr. K-6 Bev Cann, CESA 5
May 1, 2014	Gr. K-6 Julee Dredske, CESA 5
May 2, 2014	General Session for EE Coaches Julee Dredske, CESA 5 Hotel Mead-Wisconsin Rapids
June 24, 2014	Principals Peg Saylor, CESA 5

Want a SMART SLO offering in your district? Contact Julee at dredskej@cesa5.org

Cost:
Student Achievement Consortium Members: $75
PI-34 Consortium Members: $75
CESA 5 Center Members: $150
All Others: $250

Free: To districts participating in the 2013-14 Peer Review and Mentor Grant (pending funding approval)

Register at: www.myquickreg.com