

Understanding RED & GOLD Leveled Literacy Intervention (LLI)

Three-Day Institute

January 31, March 10 and May 9, 2014

8:30 am—3:00 pm for all days

CESA #2 Conference Center, 1221 Innovation Drive, Whitewater, WI 53190

THIS THREE-DAY INSTITUTE INCLUDES:

- Introduction to the LLI Red and Gold System with special attention on what the research has shown to be effective instruction for older, struggling readers.
  - Rationales for the instructional procedures in the LLI Red and Gold System -- comprehension, vocabulary development, fluency, phonics/word study, and writing about reading -- and how they all contribute to the reader's development of an effective processing system.
  - Opportunities to observe, discuss, and practice using the lesson frameworks, instructional procedures, and resources in the LLI Red and Gold System.
  - Focus on supporting students to develop strategic actions for processing text using a gradient of high quality fiction and nonfiction texts, written explicitly for the LLI Red and Gold System.
  - Specific instruction on the assessment and record keeping in the LLI Red and Gold System crucial to informing teaching decisions and maximize effectiveness.
  - Introduction to the Online Resources website for accessing materials and the LLI Data Management Website for recording, collecting, and analyzing data on student progress.

Without systematic, focused and intensive intervention, the majority of children with reading difficulties rarely catch up and that failure to develop reading skills by age 9 may result in a lifetime of illiteracy. - Lyon, 2001

Please note: Participants' districts need to have purchased either the Red or Gold LLI System.
