

Post Secondary Opportunities

For students with disabilities

Focus: College, Employment First, Waisman Center

8:00-8:30	Registration
8:30-10:00	Elisabeth Watson, UW-Whitewater, Center for Students with Disabilities and Sandra Hall, Madison College Disability Resource Center-Dual enrollment and services for special education students at the post-secondary level
10:00-11:00	Angel and Mary, Employment First
11:00-12:00	Brian Canright, Shepherds College-Guiding Your Transition to Appropriate Independence
12:00-1:00	Lunch
1:00-2:00	Eric Hartz, Campus Connect
2:00-3:00	Cutting Edge Program at Edgewood College
3:00-4:00	Kate Szidon, Waisman Center

Target Audience: HS special education teachers, parents of HS students with special needs who are interested in post-secondary options and transition coordinators.

Thursday, January 30, 2014 from 8:30-3:30 (8:00-registration)

Held at: CESA #2, 1221 Innovation Drive, Whitewater, WI

Cost: $75 per person

TAN member districts-$50

TAN representatives-$25

To register, go to www.myquickreg.com Each person attending must register!

Workshop Questions: Contact Sharon Anderson, sharon.anderson@cesa2.org

Workshop Content Questions: Contact Kristin Grender, kristin.greender@cesa2.org