

CESA #4 Title I Network and Title III Consortium Feature

Family Involvement: Between Open House and Parent Teacher Conferences

Participants will

*Dive into the research of Dr. Karen Mapp

*Examine how successful schools intentionally build connections with families.

*Select effective practices to put into place in your own schools

*Determine a plan for getting to know families, sharing with families a belief of success for all learners, respecting all families' cultural beliefs, practices and values, and connecting with families to collaboratively support learning.

- I. Involving Families to Support Student Learning
- II. Conferences: Building Relationships with Families
- III. Grade Level Parent Meetings

This workshop features a three part series over two days. Teams of participants will learn together, plan together and can earn 1 or 2 graduate credits!

FREE for teams of educators, 8:30 Registration, Workshop time 9am-3pm - lunch on your own

August 4, 2014 Three part series on site at CESA #4

August 5, 2014 Team Planning and Work Time (facilitated on site at CESA #4 or on your own in districts)

Register at <http://login.myquickreg.com/event/event.cfm?eventid=8745>