

The CESA 6 Math Center Presents:

Mathematics Leaders' Network Planning

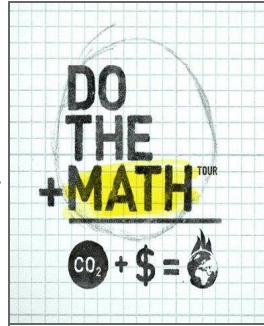

February 19, 2014 — 12:00—3:00 P.M.

Facilitator: Mary Ann Hudziak

CESA 6 Coordinator of Mathematics and ESEA Support

Network Description

Mathematics Leaders are valuable resources in every district/school. The goal of this network is to ultimately improve student learning through implementing best practices in mathematics. The Common Core State Standards for Math call for a deeper understanding of math concepts in order to deliver instruction with fidelity at all grade levels. The Mathematics Leaders' Network will provide professional development content designed to be an ongoing process to improve mathematics instruction at all classroom levels.

Network Objectives

- Reflect on high quality classroom mathematics instruction
- Focus on metacognition in regard to data analysis and teacher feedback to students
- Share and access on-line teacher resources for technology integration
- Share/discuss/review district curricula that aligns with the Common Core State Standards
- Model and share best practice classroom strategies, resources, materials and ideas
- Build relationships
- Foster leadership at the building or district level for mathematics instruction
- Support a continuous improvement model at the classroom, building and district levels

Who should attend?

- Math Coordinators/Coaches, Principals, Curriculum Directors, and Teacher Leaders
