

Understanding Your Student Learning Summary Reports!

Both of these events are aimed at K–12 school administrators or leaders who want to deepen their understanding of how to access and make sense of the data in their school student assessment summary reports in MAP or STAR. Presenters from Renaissance Learning and NWEA will provide an overview of the different types and uses of reports available in their system from a system/school level view. These workshops are NOT intended for educators primarily interested in the classroom level use of STAR or MAP data.
